DEADLINE

THEME OF THE SHOW

The Harlin Museum's mission is to serve as a cultural center telling the story of the Ozarks through art and history. This show will be part of a series entitled "Vanishing Ozarks," highlighting some of the features of the Ozarks cultural history that are in danger of disappearing. This year's focus is on wooden barns and mills, two institutions which have largely been replaced, but examples of which can still be found along the county roads of the Ozarks. We would like entries to feature a particular example of a barn or mill found within the Ozarks area. If possible we would like to have any information about the building featured in the artwork, such as its location and local history, included with the entry.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Each artist is charged a nonrefundable entry fee, $15 for one entry and $25 for two entries, with a limit of two entries per artist. The museum will receive a 10% commission from the sale of all artwork sold during the show. We will accept digital images on a CD. The high resolution image must be in Jpeg file format-300 dpi publication quality digital images resized with the largest dimension of each image 8 inches. Each image file must have a file name with a number that corresponds with number on entry form. E-mail entries are not acceptable. CDs will not be returned. Mail the completed form with the appropriate fee.
